

A large, stylized number '1330' is the central focus. It has a thick, dark red outline and a light gray drop shadow. The number is composed of several segments, each with a different color: the top '1' is dark red, the first '3' is light blue, the second '3' is light green, and the '0' is light orange. The segments are separated by thin white lines. The number is set against a white background.
