

The image displays two identical dark blue garment templates, likely for a vest or a sleeveless top, positioned side-by-side. Each template features a green waistband at the bottom. A large, dark red text overlay, '140133-160', is centered across both templates. The templates have a white outline and a small white label at the bottom center of each waistband. The left label reads 'NY-140133-R-160' and the right label reads '65142351001-172'.
